Reentry

Coded:
- Meta Analyses: 12
- Systematic Reviews: 8

Meta Analyses: 12
- ES’s Reported: 28

Outcomes Measured:
- Recidivism (4+ 50)
- Substance use (2+ 1~ 10)
- Mental Health (3+)
- Physical Health (1+)
- Community Adjustment (1+)
- Institutional Adjustment (1+)
- Education (3+ 10)
- Employment (20)
- Housing (1+)
- Stability after treatment (2+ 10)
- Satisfaction with treatment (2+)
- Other (unspecified (1+)

Population(s): (1 not specified)
- Adults and juveniles (ages varied by study)
- Substance users (some included alcohol)
- Mentally ill
- Criminal justice

Setting(s): (6 not specified)
- Prisons, jails, community corrections, work release, pre-release, drug court, halfway house, juvenile residential facilities, any residential treatment facility

Methodological Quality Assessed: 7

Key Components of Interventions:
- Cognitive-behavioral treatments (especially anger control and interpersonal problem-solving)
- Environment supportive of treatment approach
- Addressing criminogenic needs
- Good quality implementation

Systematic Reviews: 8
- Quantitative Effect Reported: 1

Outcomes Measured:
- Recidivism (1+ 1~)
- Substance use (4+ 1~)
- Mental health (1+ 10)
- Physical Health (2+)
- Community integration (1+)
- Days in locked setting/ Length of stay (1+ 1~)
- Employment/housing/education (30)
- Stability after treatment (1+ 1~ 10)
- Satisfaction/ Skills improvement (2+ 1~)
- Behavior/Social Problems (1+ 1~)
- Cost (1+ 1~)
- Length of index admission/timely release (2~)
- Quality of life/Self-efficacy (1+)

Population(s): (2 not specified)
- Adults and juveniles (ages varied by study)
- Co-occurring substance use and mental health
- Substance use
- Mental health

Setting(s): (6 not specified)
- Inpatient
- Juvenile residential facilities

Methodological Quality Assessed: 4

Key Components of Interventions:
- Psychosocial treatments
- Longer term residential care within limits
- Family involvement