Reentry
(tool(s) used to transition an individual from one setting/situation to another)

Search Terms:
- ("meta-analysis" OR "systematic review") AND ("residential" AND "treatment") OR ("transition" AND ("center" OR "facility")) OR ("reentry" OR "re-Entry") AND ("facility" OR "center") OR ("community" AND "correction"))

Databases Searched:
- Cambridge Journals Online: 0
- ProQuest: 36
- PubMed: 39
- Cochrane: 2
- CJ Abstracts: 7
- PsycArticles: 0
- Science Direct: 6
- PsycInfo: 29
- Google Scholar: 4,120
- Campbell: 216

Total Hits (Titles and Abstracts Reviewed): 4,239
(Includes duplicates within and across databases)

Excluded:
- Duplicate Articles: 128
- Not Reviews:
- Literature Review: 128
- Not Focused on Reentry: 11
- Non-human samples: 0
- Duplicate information in different sources: 4
- Studies do not have outcomes (no qualitative or quantitative reporting of effects, historical review): 2

Read Through Full Article, Examined for Criteria: 39

Coded:
- Meta Analyses: 12
- Systematic Reviews: 8