

SYDNEY N. INGEL

singel@gmu.edu
(774)-633-1186

George Mason University
Department of Criminology, Law & Society

---

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Prisons & Jails, Reentry, and Vulnerable/Minority Populations

EDUCATION

George Mason University August 2018-In Progress

Doctoral Student in Criminology, Law and Society

M.A. Criminology, Law and Society (In Progress)

- Master's Thesis: Relational Supervision: Relationships among non-custodial staff and individuals in prison (Expected Spring, 2020)

Quinnipiac University

August 2014-May 2018

B.A. Psychology & Criminal Justice with Honors

- GPA: 3.99
- Summa Cum Laude
- Undergraduate Psychology Thesis:
  - Part I: The psychological effects of childhood maltreatment
  - Part II: The history of childhood maltreatment in the United States
- Undergraduate Criminal Justice Thesis: Evaluation of the effectiveness of current local policy on prostitution in New Haven, CT

EXPERIENCE

George Mason University

August 2018-Present

ACE! (Center for Advancing Correctional Excellence)—Dr. Danielle Rudes

Graduate Research Assistant

- Position with 20 hours a week in the lab or in the field on qualitative grant-funded research projects.

U.S. Marshals Service Intern

9/2017-12/2017

U.S. Marshals Service Office, New Haven, CT

Hours: 10 hours per week, part-time

- Assist Threat Investigator with investigations into threatening or suspicious activity directed towards federal court personnel. Assist by doing reverse IP address lookups, social media lookups, reading call transcripts, and writing reports.
- Audit case files of people in custody to make sure the files meet agency requirements.
- Observe federal court process by attending trials, sentencing, arraignments, and hearings.

Public Defender Intern

01/2017-04/2017

New Haven Public Defenders Office, New Haven, CT

Hours: 10-14 hours per week, part-time

- Assist with the intake of 5-12 clients a day. This involves interviewing clients to discover the necessary information for a public defender application.

- Interact with a diverse population, including inmates locked up in the courthouse jail.
- Initiated a new project aimed at organizing the re-arrest files. Organized over 600 files and set up a system for future interns to continue the project.

Adult Probation Intern

06/2016-08/2016

Adult Probation Intake Office, New Haven, CT

Hours: 14 hours per week, part-time

- Assist with the intake of 7-10 clients a day. This involves giving clients the conditions of their probation (e.g. no new arrests, community service, receive a mental health evaluation, receive drug treatment, etc.), signing clients up for the Accelerated Rehabilitation program, and signing clients up for the Supervised Diversionary Program.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- “Rights vs. Privileges: Discretionary and Ambiguous Policy Interpretation Inside Restricted Housing Units” (Non-Presenting Author) at Law & Society Association Conference, Washington, DC. June 2019, with Dr. Danielle Rudes.
- “Relational Supervision: Relationships among non-custodial staff and individuals in prison” at American Society of Criminology Conference, San Francisco, CA. November 2019.

PUBLICATIONS

- Ingel, S. (Accepted). Book Review of Convicted and Condemned by Keesha Middlemass. Criminal Justice Review.
- Rudes, D., Magnuson, S., Ingel, S., & Hartwell, T. (Work in Progress). Rights vs. Privileges: Discretionary and Ambiguous Policy Interpretation Inside Restricted Housing Units

SCHOLARSHIPS

- George Mason University Presidential Scholarship August 2018

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Society of Criminology 2019
- Psi Chi, the international Honors Society in Psychology 2016-Present
- Alpha Phi Sigma, the National Criminal Justice Honor Society 2016-Present

SKILLS

- Basic training in Atlas.ti, SPSS, and R