GRANTS/FUNDING

PI, MPI, Co-PI, or Co-I Grant-Funded Research

Multiple Principal Investigator (MPI) (with Dr. Faye S. Taxman) (2024-2029). Justice Community Overdose Innovation Network (JCOIN) Coordination and Translation Center (CTC). National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA). Project awards a CTC to ACE! at GMU to coordinate/translate JCOIN research for NIDA. [$12.75 million over 5 years]

Principal Investigator [Co-PI, Dr. Carrie Pettus, Well-Being & Equity Innovations]. Justice Community Overdose Innovation Network (JCOIN) Coordination and Translation Center (CTC), Research Education Core. National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA). This core is one of six housed within the CTC. The project will continue developing a national research/education curriculum and training platform for investigators researching at the nexus of substance abuse disorder (SUD) and the criminal legal system. ($2.5 million of the $12.75 million total from above)

Principal Investigator. Qualitative Methods Workshop Series. Law & Society Association's Programming and Global Collaboration Project Grant. ($10,000). This work will develop a two-year long workshop series complete with in-person meetings, one-on-one project consultation, and training.

Co-Investigator. (with PI, Michael Gordon, Friends Research Institute) (2023-28). A comparative effectiveness trial of sublingual versus extended-release buprenorphine with individuals leaving a carceral setting. I am leading Aim 3 to Explore barriers and facilitators to MOUD implementation and specifically with implementation of XR-B versus SL-B implementation in jail. National Institutes of Health, R01.

Principal Investigator. (2023). Evaluation of the Loudoun County Drug Court. ($15,195). This is a qualitative evaluation project that involves interviews with court staff (judges, legal, probation, sheriff, treatment) and clients regarding their experiences and perceptions of the court processes and outcomes.

Multiple Principal Investigator (MPI) (with Drs. Carrie Pettus & Faye S. Taxman). (2023-24). Behavioral Health Literacy Interventions in Incarceration Settings. ($321,521). In this project, we extend the scientific knowledge base of behavioral health literacy (BHL) among carceral residents and staff to advance clinical practice by developing and pilot testing behavioral health interventions in prison settings.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Amy Murphy). (2022-24). JTEC: JCOIN Coordination and Translation Center. This project involves a coordinated effort to create and curate content for the JTEC website for JCOIN via the CTC. My role specifically includes facilitating the creation of three equity, diversity, and inclusivity eLearning courses and a season of the Aced It podcast focused on DEI and research at the intersection of health and justice.
